

INTERVIEW TRAINING WORKSHOP

Maximise the presentation of your capabilities to future employers

REGISTRATIONS CLOSE 5pm Thursday 26 April 2012

The ACS Foundation will be holding a 4 hour FREE interactive action oriented workshop based on experiential learning giving you a hands-on rehearsal of the job interview with additional coaching on finding the right job and start to your career.

Facilitator: John Price,

ACS Foundation Director;

Past AIIA Director & Chair

An experienced Director, Board Chairman, and Coach John Price has significant experience in the IT and Communications sector. With a background building a Human Resources Business in the IT Sector John is highly experienced and communicates openly with students. A past director of the Australian Information Industry Association and a previous Chairman, John is currently the Chair of their Alumni. In his Coaching Practice John works with company founders and senior employees to assist them maximise their potential. In his voluntary work with the ACS Foundation, John actively works to enable careers in ICT. As part of this commitment John Price will be bringing this workshop to your university.

Workshop Details:

The University of Queensland

Date: Tuesday 01 May 2012

Time: 2:00pm -6:00pm

Venue: St Leos College

(Boardroom) within St Lucia Campus

Cost: FREE

Refreshment will be provided during the workshop

Register online: <http://acsinterview.eventbrite.com.au>
Registrations are essential as places are strictly limited.

This seminar is the joint initiative of:

